

A Goodbye Letter From Your Elf

Hi Sweet _____,

What a magical December it has been! I've had the best time adventuring around your home, from cozy hiding spots to giggling at your morning reactions. You have made my stay so warm, silly, and full of Christmas spirit!

Santa is calling me back to the North Pole to help get everything ready for the big night. But before I go, I wanted you to know how proud I am of you. I've seen your kindness... your creativity... your big heart. Those are the things that make you shine brighter than any Christmas light.

Keep being you — thoughtful, brave, and wonderfully you. And don't forget: even when you can't see me, I'm cheering for you from the North Pole.

I'll be back next Christmas, ready for more magic.

Love,
★ Your Elf _____

A Goodbye Letter From Your Elf

Hi Sweet _____,

Well... my cookie crumbs are packed, my tiny suitcase is zipped, and I've eaten exactly 14 candy canes for strength, so I guess it's time for me to head back to the North Pole!

I've had THE BEST time with you this year. Your kindness, your big imagination, and your cozy holiday spirit filled this whole house with magic.

Santa said I did a great job watching over you, even on the days when I accidentally fell asleep on the job. (Please don't tell him. I'm blaming the cookies... they were too good.) From the North Pole, I'll be cheering you on all year long. Keep being kind, helpful, and totally awesome. That's what makes you shine brighter than Rudolph's nose.

See you next Christmas!

Love,
Your Elf

A cartoon illustration of a young elf with brown hair, wearing a red pointed hat with a white band and a red suit with white cuffs. The elf is sitting with hands clasped, looking directly at the viewer with a slight smile. The background is white with two horizontal black lines.

A Goodbye Letter From Your Elf

Hi _____,

I had such a magical December with you!
Thank you for the _____, the _____, and all the _____ that made my stay so special.
Santa asked me to head back to the North Pole to help him with _____,
but before I go, I wanted to tell you something important...

I loved watching you _____ this year.
Your _____ and _____ made me so proud.

Please remember:

I'll be cheering for you from the North Pole —
and I can't wait to see how much you grow, learn,
and shine.

I'll be back next Christmas with more magic!

Love,
Your Elf,

